

I support the ala carte option for cable subscribers. I resent having to pay for the sports channel that I understand costs some 40% of the cable channel costs, when I don't watch the sports channel. Let those who watch it pay for it.

I believe in freedom of choice and I am willing to pay for services that I want, and I do not wish to pay for "bundles" that are designed to maximize cable operator profits.